~Anti-Spam Policy Notice~

This Anti-Spam Policy Notice governs the use of the website and any and all associated services, web pages, domains and sub-domains, etc. which are owned and operated by this Company, ("Owner"). Wherever this Notice refers to "users" it means "you", while "we" or "our" refers to this Company and "Web Site" refers to Us.

This is our policy with regard to "Spam" marketing techniques in connection with Internet Marketing, linking, advertising or other forms of commercial use. We don't abide by "Spam" in any way shape or form. We hate it, don't use it, and don't associate with people who use it. So - if we decide that you're in violation of our spam policies - we will immediately revoke your rights as a link partner, affiliate or user of this website and close any and all active accounts you have with us.

Here is our definition of SPAM and what we consider to be a violation: We absolutely, positively forbid the sending of unsolicited mass Emails or unsolicited Emails of any kind in connection with the marketing, linking or advertising of our programs, products and services.

We reserve the right to terminate any accounts you have with us (free or paid) and end your participation in our programs "for cause" if we deem you to be in violation of our anti-spamming policies. We also reserve the right to suspend your account(s) and participation in, on or with our Websites, membership sites, etc. - pending a full review if we receive any complaint or other evidence that you may be engaging in any spamming activity.

We consider spamming to be any activity that you directly or indirectly transmit email messages to any email address that has not specifically asked you to send them email and has not consented to such transmission of emails.

We also consider it spamming if you post advertisements in any newsgroups that is in violation of the terms of participation in such newsgroups, for example, if they are off topic, or in newsgroups that do not specifically allow and encourage such advertisements.

We also consider it spamming when you place advertisements on message boards or in chat rooms when they are not permitted by the terms of participation or use in such message boards and chat rooms.

If you are "spammed" by anyone regarding our products, services, web site, or any other matters, please report this activity to Webmaster by visiting the web page at contactus Tab.

Thank you very much for your understanding of and cooperation with our anti-spam policies.

~DMCA (Digital Millennium Copyright Act)~

this Company recognizes and makes every effort to comply with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA). The DMCA, which was passed in 1998, protects Internet Service Providers from absolute liability in copyright infringement cases.

Historically, copyright laws designate "absolute liability" for violation copyright rights, including reproduction, distribution, modification, public performance and public display of copyrighted material.

The DMCA provides relief from monetary damages for certain practices. For example, an Internet webpage could contain copyrighted images used without permission of the copyright holder. The DMCA keeps the Internet Service Provider (ISP) from being held liable in such a situation under the regulations outlined in the Online Copyright Infringement Liability Limitation Act, available at the U.S. Copyright Office Web site: <http://www.loc.gov/copyright>.

The DMCA limits ISPs from liability for copyright infringement, solely for transmitting information across the Internet. However, ISPs are expected to remove material that appears to constitute copyright infringement.

It is [business name]'s policy to respond to notices of alleged copyright infringement in compliance with the DMCA. This might include removing or disabling access to material, alleged to be related to copyright infringement.

In the event of a copyright infringement claim, LiberiaInformation.com, in compliance with the DMCA, will make a good faith effort to contact the site owner of the website that contains the material so that they may have the opportunity to make a counter-notification as specified in the DMCA. If no counter-claim is received within 14 days of notification, or LiberiaInformation.com believes the claim to be reasonable, LiberiaInformation.com will remove the materials referenced in the claim.

To file a copyright infringement notification with us, a written communication by mail or fax must be received which includes the following:

A link to the page containing copyrighted work that has been infringed and a description of the nature of the infringement.

Address and telephone number of the person making the copyright infringement claim.

Inclusion of the following statement:

"I have a good faith belief that use of the copyright materials described above on the allegedly infringing web pages is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law. I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the information in the notification is accurate and that I am the copyright owner or am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed."

Signature of copyright owner or authorized agent.

The complaint should be sent via mail or ffinvests@gmail.com:

O: (614) 441-9554

this Company will notify the site owner within 3 business days of receipt of the copyright infringement claim.

The DMCA provides for counter notification if a site owner feels he or she is being wrongly accused of copyright infringement. A written counter-notification letter by fax or regular mail must be sent, including the information below:

Identification of URLs or material that has been removed or disabled by Datahost.

Name, address, telephone number, email address and a statement consenting to the jurisdiction of the Federal District Court for the judicial district in which your address is located.

Include the following statement:

"I swear, under penalty of perjury, that I have a good faith belief that the item identified above was removed or disabled as a result of a mistake or misidentification and is not infringing on copyright."

The site owner's signature.

The counter-notification should be sent by mail or fax to:
